

PHOTOS FROM THE FIRST DUTCH OVEN COOK-OFF AT CATHEDRAL GORGE STATE PARK
SATURDAY, JULY 16, 2005

The John Ahlstrom family, “stack-cooking” (Three-pepper Turkey, Jalapeno Cheese Potatoes, and Jimmy’s Apple Crunch).

The Ahlstrom family Team, preparing their food.

Kevin Smith showing Marv and Neil how he lifts the lid on his Dutch oven.

Laren Flake with his four entries.

Presenting the prizes to the happy winners (who were cleaning their Dutch ovens).

Laren Flake, preparing the rolls (award-winning recipe).

Park Supervisor Cody Tingey announcing the winners.

Art Cameron (cooked South of the Border Turkey & Rice), accepting the Lodge Cookbook from Nevin Birkmier.

Park Supervisor Cody Tingey with his cobbler.

The Country Pals band from Alamo, Nevada, provided entertainment.

It was only 100 degrees under the canopy...

THANKS TO OUR SPONSORS!

These were the prizes won by contestants.

These prizes were also donated by our sponsors.

Samples were set out for everyone to try, and vote on.

Three hands would have been useful at this point – too many good dishes to try!.